0 Introduction

Deutsche Bank AG (“DB”), operating through Deutsche Bank Index Quant (“DBIQ”), is registered with the German Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (BaFin) as a benchmark administrator under the EU Benchmarks Regulation¹ (“EU BMR”).

This environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) disclosure has been produced following the requirements set out in Articles 13(1)(d) and 27 (2)(a) of the EU BMR, for an explanation to be provided in (i) each index methodology as to how the key elements of the methodology reflect ESG factors and (ii) in each benchmark statement (including family of benchmarks) as to how ESG factors are reflected in each benchmark statement.

This disclosure applies to all benchmarks administered by DBIQ.

1 ESG Disclosure

As of the date of this document, no benchmarks administered by DBIQ pursue any ESG objectives or take into account any ESG factors. As such, unless an index methodology administered by DBIQ explicitly includes an ESG disclosure or pursues ESG objectives, each index methodology administered by DBIQ shall be deemed amended by the insertion of the following language:

“This Description does not pursue any environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) objectives or take into account any ESG factors.”

In the event that DBIQ administers benchmarks pursuing ESG objectives, DBIQ shall update this document, and produce index methodology’s and benchmark statements to reflect the requirements set out in Articles 13(1)(d) and 27 (2)(a) of the EU BMR.

¹ Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016 on indices used as benchmarks in financial instruments and financial contracts or to measure the performance of investment funds and amending Directives 2008/48/EC and 2014/17/EU and Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 as amended by Regulation (EU) 2019/2089 on 27 November 2019 as regards EU Climate Transition Benchmarks, EU Paris-aligned Benchmarks and sustainability-related disclosures for benchmarks.

2 Disclaimers

This document was prepared by DB as benchmark administrator and is intended for informational purposes only. Unless expressly provided or referenced in an index description (including rules or methodology) this document does not form part of an index description or of any document into which an index description may be incorporated. No warranty or representation is made as to the correctness, completeness and accuracy of the information contained herein and DB assumes no obligation to update the information.

This document does not constitute investment research, and has not been prepared in accordance with legal requirements designed to promote the independence of such. Any opinions expressed herein may differ from the opinions expressed by other DB departments including, but not limited to, the Research Department. DB may engage in transactions in a manner inconsistent with any views discussed herein. DB may trade as principal in instruments (or related derivatives) linked to an index and may have proprietary positions in the instruments (or related derivatives). DB may make a market in such instruments (or related derivatives), which may in extreme circumstances affect the levels of an index.

DB as benchmark administrator is not acting as a financial adviser, consultant or fiduciary to you, any of your agents with respect to any information provided herein. DB does not provide investment, legal, tax or accounting advice, DB as benchmark administrator is not acting as your impartial adviser, and does not express any opinion or recommendation whatsoever as to any strategies, products or any other information presented in the materials. Information contained herein is being provided solely on the basis that the recipient will make an independent assessment of the merits of any investment decision, and it does not constitute a recommendation of, or express an opinion on, any product or service or any trading strategy.

Without limitation, this document does not constitute an offer, an invitation to offer or a recommendation to enter into any transaction. When making an investment decision, you should rely solely on the final documentation relating to the transaction. Products based on any index or indices may not be appropriate for all investors and before entering into any transaction you should take steps to ensure that you fully understand the transaction and have made an independent assessment of the appropriateness of the transaction in the light of your own objectives and circumstances, including the possible risks and benefits of entering into such transaction. Refer to your DB Sales person for product related information. For general information regarding the nature and risks of the proposed transaction and types of financial instruments please go to <https://db.com/riskdisclosures>. You should also consider seeking advice from your own advisers in making this assessment. If you decide to enter into a transaction with DB, you do so in reliance on your own judgment. Past performance is no indication of future results.

Conflicts of interest may exist between DB, when acting as administrator to a benchmark through DBIQ and (i) in conducting one or more other roles that are linked to or otherwise reference a benchmark (including, but not limited to, calculation agent, index sponsor, index user, index product issuer and/or data provider) and (ii) another affiliate of DB (and together with DB, each a "Deutsche Bank Entity"). A Deutsche Bank Entity may also act as the issuer of, or an obligor under, financial products which are linked to or otherwise reference the benchmark and/or the constituent indices and as a dealer, calculation agent or hedge provider in relation to such financial products. Various conflicts of interest may arise as a result of these different roles as well as from the overall activities of Deutsche Bank Entities with other entities, including investors in financial products. In performing any service in relation to an index and/or any constituent index, Deutsche Bank Entities do not act on behalf of, or accept any duty of care or any fiduciary duty to, any investor in a financial product or any other person. Each relevant Deutsche Bank Entity will pursue actions and take steps that it deems necessary or appropriate to protect its interests.

Further details of conflicts of interests may also be provided in the relevant trade specific documentation such as the base prospectus or other relevant trade documentation. These conflicts of interest will be managed in accordance with DB's established policies and procedures and the enhanced control framework. Deutsche Bank's Conflicts of Interest Policy sets out Deutsche Bank's approach to conflict management and is available on the following website: <https://www.db.com/company/en/media/Conflicts-of-Interest-Policy.pdf>

DB specifically disclaims all liability for any direct, indirect, consequential or other losses or damages including loss of profits incurred by you or any third party that may arise from any reliance on this document or for the reliability, accuracy, completeness or timeliness thereof.

Although DB as benchmark administrator, will obtain information for inclusion or for use in the calculation of an index from sources which it considers reliable, it will not independently verify such information and does not guarantee the accuracy and/or the completeness of any index or any data included therein. In no event shall DB as benchmark administrator be liable (whether directly or indirectly, in contract, in tort or otherwise) to any person for any error in an index (and is under no obligation to advise any person of any error therein) and for any loss incurred by any person that arises out of or in connection with any benchmark or index, including in relation to the performance (or non-performance) by DB of any part of its role as benchmark administrator under any index description, rules or methodology provided that nothing shall relieve DB in its capacity as benchmark administrator from any liability arising by reason of acts or omissions constituting any breach of regulation (including the regulatory system) or other law and unless such use is pursuant to a transaction between that party and DB relating to the index and such liability results from wilful default and / or gross negligence on the part of DB.
